About – Amrut Vastu

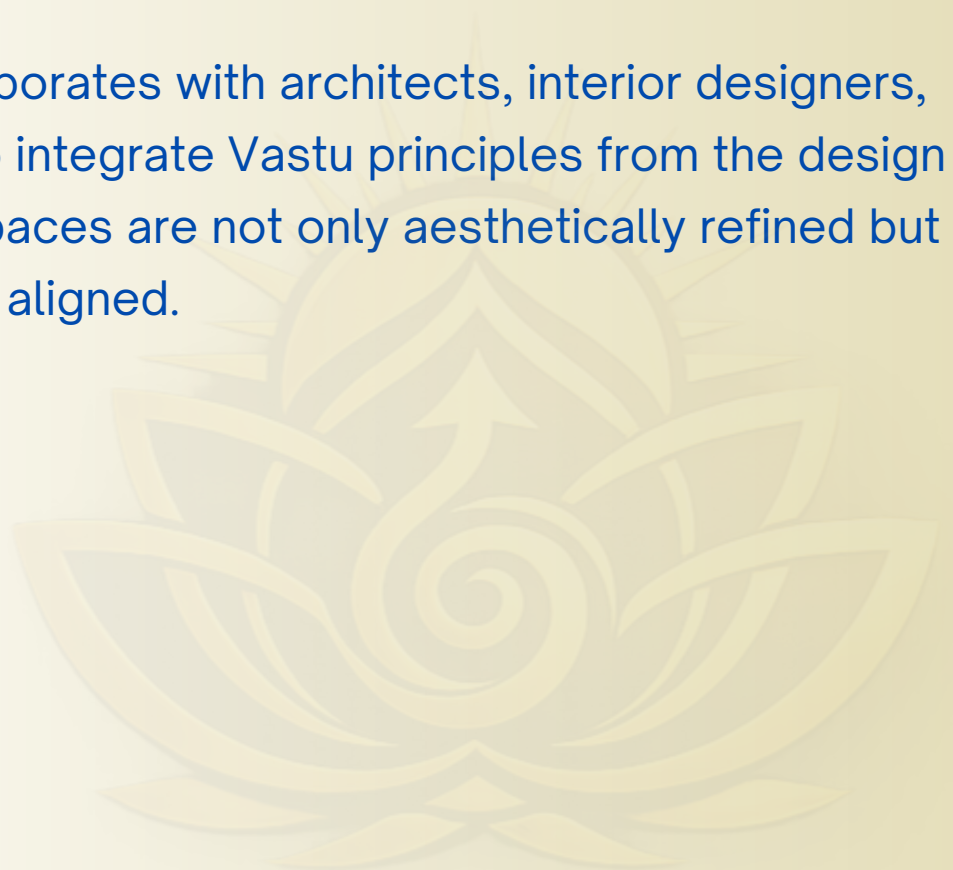

Where Energy Meets Design

Founded by Ami Dodia, a Civil Engineer and Vastu Consultant, Amrut Vastu specializes in creating balanced, purpose-driven spaces through the integration of Vastu Shastra and energy sciences.

Since 2018, Ami has guided individuals and businesses in aligning their environments to support clarity, growth, and well-being. Her approach combines technical expertise with intuitive understanding, resulting in solutions that are both practical and effective.

Amrut Vastu collaborates with architects, interior designers, and developers to integrate Vastu principles from the design stage, ensuring spaces are not only aesthetically refined but also energetically aligned.

Meet Ami Dodia

Where Engineering Meets Energy Alignment

Ami Dodia is a Civil Engineer and professional Vastu Consultant with a strong foundation in both structural design and energy alignment.

Her work is driven by a unique ability to bridge the gap between technical planning and Vastu principles. This allows her to deliver solutions that are realistic, implementable, and aligned with each client's requirements.

With years of hands-on experience, Ami focuses on providing clear, honest, and result-oriented guidance that enhances both the functionality and energy of a space.
